Nooks—the stock market renewed the decline of Friday and Staturday, and the loss esturing the day were much more general than on any day of last week. The leading stocks felt the depression throushout, and the specialties were weak. London prices ame higher, but the effect was seen in only a few stocks. He remainer being decidedly weak. To this indiance alse mey be agriculd a slight ral y early in the ferencen. There was an absence of the persistent hammering noticeable during the past few days, prices declining almost entirely in consequence of the nagnitude of the selling movement. The trading was extremely feverish for most of the day. Canada Southern was the principal feature, recording a drop of ever i per cent. due to the fact that many stop orders were uncovered after some hammering by the bears. Reading, though first on the list in point of activity, showed a marked decrease in business. Western Union. Lackswanns. Louisville and Nashville and New York Central were all conspienced.
